Welcome to the April North Down Ezine

Welcome to the May edition of the North Down Tourism Ezine.

We have lots of fun things happening this month through the borough like Holywood's Medieval May Day, 3 May, so why not visit northdowntourism.com, download a copy of the 2010 Events Guide and start planning your next trip.

What's On

Medieval May Day, 3 May

Medieval May Day, organised by North Down Borough Council in partnership with Holywood and District Community Council, takes place in Holywood on 3 May, 10am - 4pm.

Come along and enjoy the festival atmosphere from 10am in Holywood town centre where visitors will be treated to lots of top-class entertainment including jesters, acrobats and fighting knights from 12noon - 4pm in the medieval arena.

There will also be two sessions of maypole dancing performed at 10.15am and 11.45am as well as the traditional crowning of the May Queen at 12noon.

The day also includes a specialty market and charity stalls all taking place from 10am and 4pm.
