Summer in North Down

Welcome to the May edition of the North Down Tourism Ezine.

North Down is buzzing this month with the Ward Park Snow Patrol concert on Saturday 5 June and then on Saturday 26 & Sunday 27 June the Sea Bangor Maritime Festival returns to the Bangor seafront.

And don't forget, we have lots of other fun activities and events taking place over the summer, so why not visit northdowntourism.com and plan your next trip.

What's on

Sea Bangor Maritime Festival

It's time to embark on a weekend of family fun when the Sea Bangor Maritime Festival returns to the Bangor seafront on Saturday 26 & Sunday 27 June 2010, 10am - 6pm.

The Festival takes place along the Seafront in Bangor where in Quay Street car park a nautical theme will be created in the tented village

Fun activities will include a food tent full of culinary delights, a Children's tent, a model boat tent and the popular curiosity tent, which is open from 1pm - 6pm, where you can listen to talks on a diverse range of subjects and catch performances from local musicians.

On Saturday The McKee Clock Arena will be the venue for the Sea Cadets who will be celebrating the Cadet150 with displays for the crowds.

On Sunday The McKee Clock Arena will come alive with performances by the Belfast Gospel Choir and the Ulster Youth Jazz Orchestra.

All weekend the Eisenhower Pier will have a visiting Naval Vessel that will be open to the public along with a flight simulator, lots of static displays, street entertainment and the RNLI open day.

So come along and be entertained for free in Bangor at the Sea Bangor Festival on Saturday 26 June 2010 - Sunday 27 June 2010, 10am - 6pm.
